This is an excellent opportunity to receive training covering the topic of wiring one and two-family dwellings or to concentrate on the requirements of grounding electrical systems that appear in the 2008 edition of the NEC and Comm 16. The 2008 NEC includes changes intended to make the Code easier to use and to demonstrate its ability to be used in the international arena.

Instructors:

Monte Ewing,
Joe Hertel,

Certificates for 8 hours of continuing education will be provided by IAEI and State of Wisconsin
